SAYS ROSS OWES A BIG BILL. WILL FIGHT THE TAX LAWS

Harris Ross, aged forty-nine, who said Ex-Judge Curtis Declares They was stopping at the Vendome Hotel, Are Unconstitutional. appeared in Jefferson Market Court this morning in response to a summon which had been issued on complaint of Capt. John McKay, proprietor of the toriental Hotel, Broadway and Thirty-ninth street.

McKay says that Ross came to the criental Hotel on Jan. 6 last with a woman, said to be Mrs. Jennie E. Brown, whom Ross claimed was his wife. McKay says that Ross was very affable, and represented that he was weithly and nilmated that he might be of financial assistance to the hotel man. Ross, it is alleged, contrived to keep from paying his bill until July 25, when he left the hotel, owing McKay $771.34. Ex-Judge George B, Curtis appeared McKay $171.94.

The summons for Ross was issued on Aug. 5 last, but Court Office Connolly who was intrusted with the paper, could not serve it. Ross staying in bed and claiming he was ill.

To-day, however, Ross came into court and showed a doctor's certificate that he had been ill. At the request of his counsel, ex-Judge Russell, the examination was set for Oct. 21.

"If Your Honor decides against me, said ex-Judge Curits, "I should like that the tofurnish a bond." He added that he had to make a number of campain speeches.

"Going on the stump is no valid ex-cuser with the court," replied Judge Lawrence.
"But it is with the other side," quick-ity retorted ex-Judge Curtis, who is a Tammany Hall man. The Judge said he would take the papers and reserved

ONLY ONE LANDING.

Ferry to Run to Tompkinsville an Connect with Trains.

Those residents of Staten Island who have been under the impression that with the change in the operation of the ferry at the foot of Whitehall street, scheduled o take place at noon to-morrow, wil follow the immediate operation of the five landings on the island controlled by John H. Starin are doomed to a slight disappointment.

From the moment the New York Harbor and Staten Island Ferry Company takes charge but one landing will be takes charge but one landing will be used, the one at Tompkinsville.

Albert O. Heebe, who represents Gen. Samuel Thomas, said to-day:

"We hope that by noon to-merrow our boats will be running to Tompkinsville. Overtures have been made by us, looking to the landing of passengers at St. George, as formerly, there to connect with the Rapid Transit Company's trains, but nothing has developed as yet. The trains stop near our Tompkinsville landing, and must carry our passengers. The railroad cannot refuse to perform the duty for which it was given a franchise. "If the railroad company insists upon increasing its fares, we will fight them. We hope, however, that everything will be settled amicably."
